

N.I.J. Ballistic Penetration Test Headform

P/N: 100_02_HNME

The N.I.J. ballistic headform is designed and manufactured according to N.I.J. 0106.01 standard for ballistic penetration tests. This model is used for Sagittal & Coronal penetration applications. This specific headform has a cavity to be filled with clay (not included).

FEATURES:

- Headform comes with it's technical datasheet
- Material: aluminum
- 100% CNC machined

This headform can also be bought with an optional witness plate holder and witness plates.

